

KKCO

 PRINT THIS

Powered by

Updated: 6:07 PM Jul 28, 2011

Bounty Hunter's jail surveillance video released

Newly-released video backs up claim by the Mesa County Sheriff that Duane "Dog" Chapman, A.K.A. the "Bounty Hunter" didn't follow protocol when he brought a wanted man into the Sheriff's Department.

Posted: 9:54 AM Jul 28, 2011

Reporter: Associated Press

Email Address: tips@nbc11news.com

 Bounty Hunter's jail surveillance video released

f

i

MESA COUNTY, Colo. (KKCO) - Surveillance videos in the lobby of the Sheriff's Department show people having coughing fits after a pepper-sprayed fugitive was delivered by Duane "Dog" Chapman.

The videos back up claims by the Mesa County sheriff that the star of the A&E show "Dog the Bounty Hunter" excessively pepper-sprayed the fugitive during a scuffle on July 20 and then took him in without decontaminating him.

Chapman and his wife said they didn't understand why the sheriff was upset because the suspect, Andrew Distel, was cleaned and fed.

Distel was wanted on warrants for failure to appear in two felony cases involving possession of methamphetamine.

Copyright © 2011 The Associated Press. All rights reserved.

Find this article at:

http://www.nbc11news.com/home/headlines/Bounty_Hunters_jail_surveillance_video_released__126327543.html?storySection=story

Check the box to include the list of links referenced in the article.

Copyright © 2002-2010 - Gray Television Group, Inc.