

Dallas DUI Attorney Firm McConathy Law Offers Bail Bond Assistance

By SEOP, Inc.

Dated: Oct 05, 2010

In Dallas, a DUI attorney can provide bail bond services to those accused with alcohol crimes. Through the Law Offices of Richard C. McConathy, defendants may be released 24 hours after the bail bond purchase.

At the Law Offices of Richard C. McConathy, the Dallas DUI attorney can work both as the defendant's bail bondsman and legal representative in court. With competitive rates set at 10% to 15% of the bond amount, the defense law firm guarantees the defendant's release from custody 24 hours after the bail bond purchase.

Bail bonds are formal documents that act as a surety of responsibility in return for the defendant's release from jail. Concerned loved ones of the accused can choose to purchase bail bonds through bondsmen rather than post bail themselves, as it costs less and is more straightforward.

Defense law firms are one of the safest places to purchase bail bonds. As a provider of professional legal assistance, the defense attorneys can help the defendant further should he or she agree to employ their services in court. The Law Offices of Richard C. McConathy are highly experienced in handling DUI defense cases. Since 2002, the defense law firm has consistently obtained case dismissals and Not Guilty charges for its clients.
