Garner bail bondsmen arrested for solicitation

By NBC17 Staff

A bail bondsman in Garner has been charged with a misdemeanor count of solicitation.

According to the Department of Insurance, investigators allege that on September 9, Laporcia Demeka Jones, 24, solicited two undercover agents for bail bonding while at Wake County Public Safety Center and Jail.

The North Carolina General Statute states no bail bondsman shall solicit business in or around any place where prisoners are confined.

Jones was arrested on Sept. 10 and placed under a $1,000 secured bond.
